Swiss Society for Microcirculation and Vascular Research (SSMVR)

MD/PhD student allowances

The Swiss Society for Microcirculation and Vascular Research (SSMVR) invites applications or nominations for MD/PhD student allowances. With this allowance of 15 000 CHF the SSMVR wishes to specifically support MD/PhD students in the field of microcirculation and vascular research pursuing their thesis in parallel to their clinical education. The aim of this SSMVR allowance is to raise attention to the difficult situation of young clinicians aiming to follow a research career in parallel to their clinical career in Switzerland and to slightly ease their financial difficulties during this time.

Applications should include: letter of motivation, CV, description of his/her funding and employment, a short description of the research project, letter of recommendation.

Applications should be sent until November 30th 2011 to Prof. Dr. Britta Engelhardt, President of the SSMVR, Theodor Kocher Institute, University of Bern, Freiestrasse 1, CH-3012 Bern (bengel@tki.unibe.ch).
